CHP named developer of the year

Community Housing Partners of Christiansburg has received the 2009 Multifamily Developer of the Year Award from EarthCraft Virginia for its commitment to sustainable, green multifamily housing.

CHP designs, builds and sells sustainable housing that is affordable for low-income families. In 2006, it formally adopted the EarthCraft program as a template for design and construction of green housing. Since then, CHP has helped develop 12 EarthCraft-certified multifamily communities.
