

reaching out

AmeriCorps Members Eager to Make a Difference

With a grant from the Virginia Commission for National & Community Service, CHP is able to place AmeriCorps members in our program sites to work directly with our residents to increase literacy, teach conflict resolution skills, and promote a sense of civic engagement through service in the community.

We are excited to announce our most recent AmeriCorps team members, which are listed below with the property where they will be working for their service year:

Mondo Mulemaza - Blue Ridge Commons	Andrea Walker - Woods at Yorktown
Juanita Hatcher - Warwick SRO	Ashley Bledsoe - Lafayette Apartments
Joan Ali - Ansell Gardens	Daniel Emmanuel - Lafayette Apartments
Genivie Habib - Ansell Gardens	Brittney Humphrey - Cross Creek
Valerie Leybag - Friendship Village	Bianca Toliver - Cross Creek
Pamela Whitesell - Meadowview	Solomon Williams - Friendship Village
Jessica Waldron - Meadowview	Rashanna Hewlett - Yorktown Square/Rivermeade
Margaret Southerington - Yorktown Square/ Rivermeade

AmeriCorps is a U.S. federal government program partnering with non-profit organizations, public agencies, and faith-based organizations that was created under President Bill Clinton by the National and Community Service Trust Act of 1993. More than 70,000 individuals currently join AmeriCorps annually, totaling more than 500,000 past and current members since 1994.

Left: Bianca Toliver, AmeriCorps member at Cross Creek apartments, helps with a community landscaping project in Norfolk, Virginia. Said Toliver, "This job has already brought me such a sense of accomplishment, knowing that I am really making a difference in people's lives. I'm looking forward to participating in even more community activities and helping bring people together."