COMMUNITY HOUSING PARTNERS LISTED AS ONE OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING FINANCE MAGAZINE'S TOP 50 AFFORDABLE HOUSING OWNERS

Christiansburg, Va. – Community Housing Partners (CHP) has recently been ranked number 37 in a list of the nation's top 50 affordable housing owners by Affordable Housing Finance magazine, as presented in the periodical's April, 2009 issue.

"Since our inception in 1975, CHP has sought to create affordable, green, sustainable housing opportunities for the communities we serve. We are pleased to be recognized by Affordable Housing Finance magazine for our continued efforts to extend affordable housing options to previously underserved areas," said CHP President & CEO Janaka Casper.

CHP's portfolio of owned affordable units has grown from 31 in 1988 to over 4,528 in 2009 -- extending across Virginia, North Carolina, and Florida. The types of properties include conventional and tax-credit properties, Section 8 eligible developments, and housing complexes designed to serve elderly, handicapped, and/or disabled people.
